Dear Homoeopath,

HMAI meets regularly to have Analysis, Self assessment and Evaluation through dialogue and discussions. We frame the future of Homoeopathy in India by declaring resolutions after vigorous paper presentations, discussions and forum with dialogue to contribute toward the healthy society the way our master proclaimed.

This is the way we become the torch bearer and safeguard the interests of fraternity and society at large.

We from the platform of Organising Committee of 19th AIHCON 2014 heartily invite you to this event and contribute to the cause.

19th All India Homoeopathic Congress 2014 (AIHCON 2014) is organized through Gujarat State Chapter of HMAI and hosted by HMAI Ahmedabad Unit in technical collaborations with

Central Council of Research in Homoeopathy, India
Central Council of Homoeopathy, India

Experience Gujarat & Ahmedabad

Kankaria Lake

A polygonal lake almost a mile in circumference, was constructed in 1451. An island-garden with a summer palace known as Nagina Wadi is at centre of lake.

River Front

The development project encompasses both banks of the Sabarmati for 10.5 kms. stretch, creating approximately 185 hectares of reclaimed land with attractions.

Ambaji Temple

This is the principal shrine of a goddess worshiped since the pre-Vedic period. It is located at the south-western end of the Aravali mountain range at a distance of 4 hour drive from Ahmedabad.

Dwarka Temple

Dwarka is sacred hindu pilgrimage & most ancient religious cities in the country. Krishna temple known as Dwarkadheesh temple was built around 200 BC & is well connected from Ahmedabad by rail & road at a distance of 525 km.

Little Rann of Kutch

The Great Rann of Kutch, along with the Little Rann of Kutch and the Banni grasslands on its southern edge, is situated in the district of Kutch and comprises some 30,000 square kilometers

Sasangir

Gir is a place that deserves time and involvement. Your chances of spotting wildlife in few hours is small, especially in the middle of the day.

Places near Gujarat: Mount Abu is 200 Km from Ahmedabad. Udaipur & Shreenathji are also 250km away from Ahmedabad.
