My dear Colleagues,

Please accept greetings and best wishes for the year 2013 from me and my team.

After a very successful annual meeting at Surat in last September, Rajkot team is leaving no stone unturned to make the next annual meeting a grand success.

Between these two meetings, lots of things are happening and we thought, we will share with you.

- AGOS constitution: After receiving suggestions from members, a revised constitution will be prepared. Dr. M. V. Vachharajani, Convener, Constitution Committee has readily agreed to look after the hectic task.
- CMEs: Two full day (6 scientific hours) CMEs; One on Glaucoma and one on Cornea and Refractive surgery, have been planned in all four zones during this year.
- Dr. Mayuri Khamar and Dr. Mariyam Mansuri for Glaucoma and Dr. Sandeep Arora for Cornea and Refractive Surgery have been entrusted the work of making common scientific format for all zones and inviting renowned guest speakers. We expect whole hearted participation of members to attend these CMEs.
- New Directory: Important details of AGOS members will be included in the directory.

Friends, you are invited to send your constructive suggestions and/or share important information with us.

Expecting to meet you all at Rajkot.

With regards,
Sincerely yours,

Dr. Ashok Shroff
President – AGOS

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Executive Committee of All Gujarat Ophthalmological Society it gives me immense pleasure to invite you all to "VISTA 2013", the 41st All Gujarat Ophthalmological Conference to be held at Rajkot on 14th and 15th September, 2013.

The world of Ophthalmology is continually taking great strides in innovating new surgical techniques, medical treatment, diagnostic gadgets and research arenas. Hence we as Ophthalmologists need to keep up with these advances and updates.

Our Chairman Scientific Committee Dr. Kartikey Nanavaty is working hard on preparing a very informative, interactive and interesting scientific programme for us. The Rajkot Ophthalmological Society under the able leadership of young and dynamic Organizing Secretary Dr. Mukesh Porwal is working day and night to make this conference the most memorable one for all of us.

Please register yourselves at the earliest in this mega event. I would also appeal through you to all the non-member Ophthalmologists, to become a life member of our society at the earliest.

We are actively persuading numerous other projects like zonal CMEs, publication of new directory with details of only members of AGOS and formulating a revised constitution.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. Ashok Shroff, President AGOS, for his keen interest in organizing Zonal CMEs.

Please feel free to communicate with me for your valuable suggestions and guidance.

With Warm Regards,

Dr. Nilesh Parekh
Executive Secretary, AGOS

V V P ENGINEERING COLLEGE

Vista 2013 will be hosted at one of the leading educational institutions of Rajkot – The V.V.P. (Vyavasayi Vidya Pratishthan) Engineering College. Its vast campus is located about 10kms on the outskirts of Rajkot on a quiet and scenic stretch of Kalawad Road. The venue is hugely spacious with an unpolluted ambience isolated from the city traffic yet quickly and conveniently reachable. With one of the largest and most modern auditoriums in the region, ample space for parking and an uncongested setting, this conference would be a very educative, pleasant and relaxing experience for the delegates.

Dear Seniors, Colleagues & Youngsters,

Greetings from Rajkot. The preparations for Vista 2013 – The 41st All Gujarat Ophthalmological Conference, have started in full swing. It will be twelve years, exactly to the day, after the last one (29th) held in Rajkot. This time it will be set in a quiet & spacious educational campus – the V.V.P. Engineering College – in a languid atmosphere typical of Rajkot. Some details about this city, known as the 'Gateway to Saurashtra', its specialities as well as the arrangements we have been making for the conference have been included in this first circular. The elaborate Scientific Program will follow in subsequent brochures.

Rajkot Ophthalmological Society & the Local Organizing Committee look forward to hosting this conference with a lot of meticulous planning & some innovative ideas. We aim to achieve high standards & everyone is working hard to provide full value for the time & efforts of all the delegates, faculty as well as the trade participants.

Vivid we aim to make it in your remembrance,
In the days & years many after this conference.
Science would of course be the primary focus,
Though all things else too will have good locus.
At your service we are awaiting eagerly to be,
2013 September 13-15 do make yourself free.

Right would be the mix of topics & themes,
Assured you also can be of some fun & games.
Juniors & seniors each one would be a special guest,
Keen & sharp would we be to do our very best.
On your calendars has the time not come to mark,
The dates for this conference in bold & dark?!

I welcome you to Rajkot & invite you to be an active part of this academic feast.
With my best regards,

Dr. Mukesh Porwal,
Organising Secretary, Vista 2013

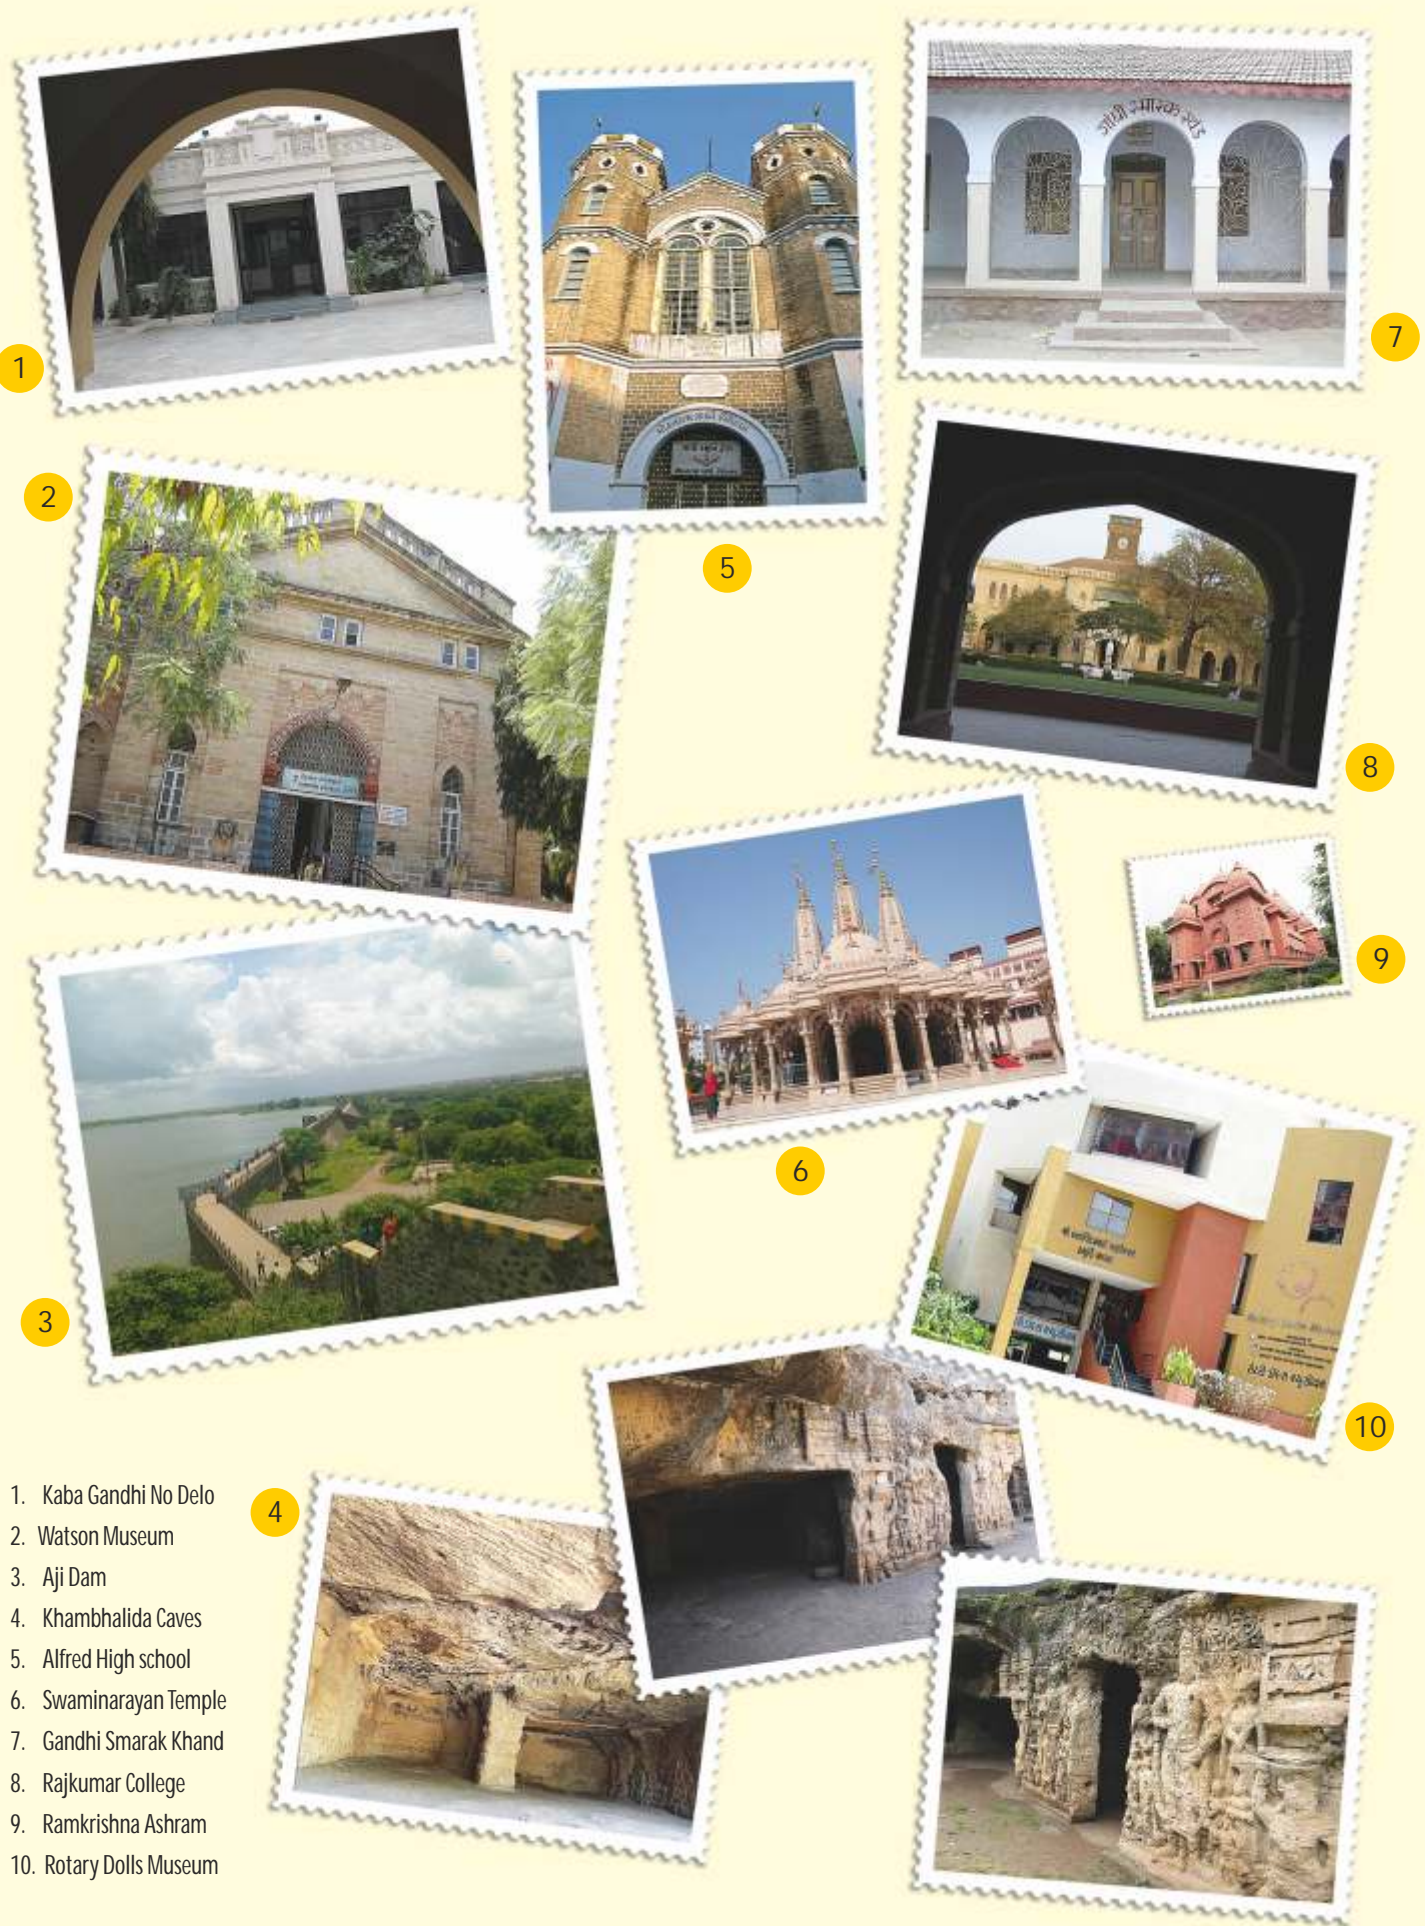

(Invitation poem above has been composed in a way the first letters of each line add up to the name of the conference: Vista 2013 Rajkot)

RAJKOT

THE 41ST ANNUAL ALL GUJARAT OPHTHALMOLOGICAL CONFERENCE

1. Kaba Gandhi No Delo
2. Watson Museum
3. Aji Dam
4. Khambhalida Caves
5. Alfred High school
6. Swaminarayan Temple
7. Gandhi Smarak Khand
8. Rajkumar College
9. Ramkrishna Ashram
10. Rotary Dolls Museum

Rajkot is the the 4th largest city in the state of Gujarat, the 9th cleanest city in India & the 22nd fastest growing city in the world. This hub of Saurashtra is famous for being an important industrial centre for Gujarat. It is well known for its abundance of gold and silver, and for its textile expertise. The city is also a major exporter of diesel engines, watch parts and bearing equipment. It is well recognized for its strong Kathiawadi connections with Mahatma Gandhi.

Rajkot and its excursions are considered to be a rich repository of cultural and historical inheritance of Saurashtra and Kutch regions. It is recognized as one of the living traditions with people of diverse communities ranging from nomadic tribes to city-dwellers and cultural expressions ranging from property to architecture.

Some of the places to visit in Rajkot are the Aji Dam – a dam site made during British rule – now a popular picnic spot, the Race course – ever popular for morning and evening strolls and hang-outs, the Rotary Dolls Museum – this unique museum gives an overview of the culture and traditions of the world through its collection of dolls, the Lang Library and the Jubilee Garden. Community Science Centre and Planetarium is an informative science museum. The Watson Museum displays artefacts from Indus Valley, Harappan Civilization and the period of Mohenjadaro. Funworld, within the Race Course Circle and Pradyuman Park Zoo, on the outskirts are major attractions for kids.

The Kaba Gandhi No Delo - Mahatma Gandhi's childhood residence - which has now been converted in to a memorial called 'Gandhi Smriti' is another major attraction. Its museum has photographs, objects and other belongings of Mahatma Gandhi. The Mahatma Gandhi Vidhyalaya (formerly Alfred High School) where Gandhi got his primary education, the Rashtriya Shala, an educational institution started by Gandhi, the Swaminarayan Temple, Ramkrishna Ashram and Lalpari Lake are some of the other local attractions.

Rajkot is also famous for its traditional sweets and garba dances. In order to shop for the regional specialities, the local markets such as the Dharmendra Road Bazaar can be visited for perfumes, incense sticks, clothes, handlooms, etc. The Bangdi Bazaar specialises in imitation jewellery and the Mochi Bazaar in ethnic footwear.

Rajkot is surrounded by a number of tourist spots of diverse interest like wildlife sanctuaries, historical sites as well as religious pilgrimages.

- Mount Girnar and the Gir forest (known for its healthy lion population) is a major wildlife attraction near the neighbouring Junagadh.
- The beaches & historical temple of Somnath and Diu (of Daman & Diu, formerly a Portugese colony) are popular destinations.
- Dwarka – This ancient Krishna temple town on the western tip of Gujarat and the eco-rich National Marine Park of Pirotan Island off the coast of Jamnagar are worth visiting from Rajkot.
- Morbi is a flourishing town well known for its ceramic and clock industry en route from Rajkot to the White desert in the Rann of Kutch.
- Mahatma Gandhi's birthplace is preserved as Kirti Mandir in the nearby town of Porbandar on the West Coast of Gujarat.

RAJKOT

Dear Friends,

Days begin with hopes and ends with dreams!!!...

Everyday starts with some expectation, but surely ends with some experience. That is our professional life. Precision and predictability has become passion of our profession. Let us take it to higher level. Rajkot conference is eagerly waiting for your participation.
