AGE ESTIMATION COMMITTEE

Function:

The age estimation committee was established in the year 2013. Three faculty members of Government Dental College And Hospital, Ahmedabad were assigned the duty of performing the age estimation of the medico-legal cases. The chronological age is correlated with the developmental pattern and the eruption timing of the dentition. Hence based on these factors, the dental age is assessed using the clinical and radiographical means. The cases that required the estimation of biological age for legal purposes are mainly the sexual assault cases under POSCO act, the child labor act cases, age verification cases under sports Authority of India (SAI), criminal cases involving homicides and identification cases under CrPC. sec.174. The doubtful cases are referred to Government Dental College And Hospital, Ahmedabad by the medical board of civil hospital, forensic medicine department of BJ Medical college, Ahmedabad and by Non-Governmental Organizations. The cases are registered under the MLC register of the institute and a case paper is recorded. The person is clinically evaluated for the number of erupted teeth and radiographically to assess the mineralization status of dentition. Based on these clinical and radiographical presentation, the most likely dental age of the person is estimated. The report is prepared using a standard format and handed over to the police personal or sent to the requesting authority.

In case of female victim of sexual assault, the clinical examination is done in presence of female attendant. The consent for clinical and radiographical examination are obtained from the person and from guardian in case of minors. In case of a sexual assault victim who is pregnant as per the Gynecological evaluation, the age estimation is done based on clinical examination only in order to avoid radiation exposure.

MENTORSHIP COMMITTEE

Function

Mentors provide guidance, advice, feedback, and support to the mentee, serving variously as role model, teacher, counselor, advisor, sponsor, advocate, and ally, depending on the specific goals and objectives negotiated with the mentee. A mentor establishes, with the mentee, the mentee's explicit goals and objectives for the relationship, takes the initiative in the relationship but allows the mentee to take responsibility for their growth, development, and career planning, commits to fostering the relationship for the specified period of time, commits to meeting with mentee on a regular basis, not normally during the mentee's work time, no less than one hour per month.

The mentor actively listens to mentee, provides frank, honest, and constructive feedback, provides encouragement and assists the mentee in identifying professional development activities, maintains confidentiality, reviews goals and objectives of the relationship with the mentee midway and at the end of a formal, long-term relationship (those lasting 6-12 months), follows through on commitments made to mentee, respects mentee's limits, explicitly states own limits.

A mentor recognizes and works through conflicts in caring ways, invites discussion on differences with the mentee, and arranges for a third party to assist if necessary, makes only positive or neutral comments about the mentee to others; if disagreement over behavior or values arise, differences are shared with the mentee; if necessary, takes steps to end the relationship and tries to find mentee another mentor. The mentor maintains a professional relationship, doesn't intrude into the mentee's personal life or expects to be close friends, ends the relationship at the agreed upon time, and informs supervisor of mentoring activities
